OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 26 February 1963

1. [redacted] William Saltonstall, in the office of Senator Leverett Saltonstall, called to say the Senator had received a letter from a bank president in Massachusetts whose son-in-law was killed "in your service in Cuba." Saltonstall said according to the letter the wife is not getting anything much out of us. She would like to know something about the case. The deceased is [redacted] whose [redacted] I advised Saltonstall I would look into the case and be in touch with him tomorrow. [redacted] is pulling together information for us.

2. [redacted] [redacted] called to say that their people in [redacted] had a good meeting with [redacted] who was referred to us by Representative Eugene J. Keogh, and it is possible we might have some requirements for him.

3. [redacted] 25X1A [redacted] SA Division, advised that State Department had taken the following position with respect to the possibility of [redacted] appearing before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee regarding the Soviet Orthodox Church matter. State has indicated that while they are not happy at the prospect of [redacted] testifying they have no basis for objecting. SA Division is preparing a memorandum for the DD/P on this.

4. [redacted] Mr. Bushman, in the office of Senator Hugh Scott, called to say they had received a rumor that a Government agency plans to rent twenty apartments at [redacted] for the use of out of town guests. Bushman said he talked with GSA which knows nothing about this but who suggested he might try some of the agencies who were not required to go through GSA on matters of this sort. Bushman said it was a point of curiosity with him as to whether or not CIA was involved. I said I knew nothing of this but would check and be in touch with him. [redacted] informed me later that he knew nothing about this and I am passing this back to Bushman.
